WRECK TRAIN AND BURN PASSENGERS

Mexican Rebels Rob and Kill Federals and Non-Combatants on Passenger

BUT FEW MAKE THEIR ESCAPE

Half Crazy Survivors Hiding in Hills Tell Details of Atrocities Committed

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 13.—Federal troops and rurales are today hot on the trail of the rebel band which derailed a passenger train in a canyon 110 miles southeast of here on Sunday and after killing thirty-six soldiers, and twenty or more passengers, wounding many others, and robbing their victims, set fire to the wreckage, and burned the dead and injured together.

If the rebels are caught there is no doubt they will be herded together and shot down without delay or legal formality. This, unquestionably, they realize, and it is expected they will sell their lives dearly if cornered.

Few Escape

Besides Conductor Marin and Col. Dominguez, of the wrecked train, who managed to slip through the rebel lines and sent the first news of the butchery to Mexico City, the rurales who rushed to the scene of the wreck found a few other passengers hidden among the hills in its vicinity, half crazed with horror and their sufferings, and sent them into Yauatepec, where they are being cared for.

These survivors say the carnival of violence which followed the train's plunge from the track was absolutely inhuman. The troops under Lieut. Reynoso, who had been detailed as a guard for the train, were heavily outnumbered and the fight with them was brief. The rebels poured volley after volley after them until the entire detachment was wiped out.

Then they rushed among the passengers, chopping fingers from living men, and from women to secure rings, ripping gems from women's ears, shooting and cutting their victims down indiscriminately, and in several cases subjecting women passengers to the most shocking indignities before they killed them.

That the rebels were under command of Amador Salazar was said by Conductor Marin, who says he recognized him.

Details are as yet lacking regarding the massacre of 200 rurales and citizens of Ixilapa by Zapatistas who are reported to have sacked the town Monday night on their way northward to Toluca.

Rebels Infuriated

There seems no question that the rebel leaders are mad with fury at the reports that President Madero's recent peace negotiations had in view the killing of rebel officers after they had laid down their arms and disbanded their forces. The president denies emphatically that he planned the killing, but the officers believed it and are evidently seeking revenge in the reckless violence of their behavior in the past few days.

The rebels who wrecked a train and massacred the crew, passengers and military escort, near Ticman, Sunday, carried away with them as prisoners two girls, the daughters of excellent families, it was learned today.

The captives' families are nearly crazed with anxiety, and are trying to persuade the government to offer the rebels terms rather than fight them, as they fear the young women will be killed.

May Shell El Paso

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—El Paso, Texas, today is again threatened with a bombardment from the other side of the Rio Grande. General E. Z. Steever reported to the war department that the Mexican rebel leader Orozco is concentrating his forces in the neighborhood of Juarez, Orozco has sent a special train to bring in Salazar and his followers. Steever reports that there are now more rebels in the vicinity of the international boundary line than ever before.

Although numerous reports have been received that rebels have crossed the boundary line and are operating in the mountains of Arizona, Steever reported today that his cavalry has scoured that section without being able to locate any of the revolutionists.

General Orozco's announcement that he has decided to meet General Huerta, the federal commander, in a peace conference comes too late, according to Mexican Consul Llorante. The consul says it would be absurd for President Madero to treat with Orozco now as within two weeks at the most, the federals will have surrounded and captured Orozco and his lieutenants.

ALPINE, Tex., Aug. 13.—Details of the fight between a detachment of the United States Third cavalry commanded by Major Sedgwick Rice and a band of about 50 rebels which occurred Saturday 35 miles from the nearest railroad points reached here today. The rebels fired on the

Uncle Sam Sells Meat Cheap In Canal Zone

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—The high cost of living problem has not yet reached the canal zone. While housewives here in the states are paying record prices for meat, Uncle Sam's commission on the zone is furnishing steaks, roasts and chops as cheaply as a year or so ago.

Porterhouse steak, selling at from 30 to 35 cents a pound, can be purchased at Panama for 20 cents, Sirloin brings 25 per. 19 cents on the zone. Ham is 28 cents a pound from the commissaries and 40 cents from the grocery stores here. The canal record official publication of the isthmian canal commission, gives many other figures showing low meat prices.

The explanation is that on the zone Uncle Sam himself is the storekeeper, buying direct from the packers and selling to the public at wholesale prices plus only the cost of selling.

LINER HITS ICE; REPORTED SAFE

Allan Boat Corsican Strikes Berg While at Slow Speed, Is Message Received

IS BUT LITTLE DAMAGED

Captain Says Ship Is Taking No Water and Will Continue On to Liverpool

MONTREAL, Aug. 13.—Wireless stations all along the Canadian coast today were on the lookout for messages from the Allan liner Corsican, Montreal to Liverpool, which reported her bows stove in by collision with an iceberg. Captain Cook's wireless to Allan's office, said the damage to the ship's stem was above the water line, but there was no danger and that he was proceeding on his way. The Corsican left Montreal with 25 first-class, 622 second-class and 325 third-class passengers. Despite the reassuring message from Captain Cook the Allan officers, remembering the long delay in receiving news of the Titanic disaster and the conflicting reports flashed from the wireless station to the wireless station up and down the coast, were anxious to hear more from the Corsican and eagerly awaited news.

Damage Reported Slight

The first message from Captain Cook said that the Corsican had struck a low lying berg in altitude 52.24 north and longitude 52.15 west. The steamer Lake Champlain was the first to pick up the signal of distress and replied that she was hurrying to the rescue. Almost immediately came other messages from the Corsican stating that the damage was slight. The captain reported that she was taking no water. He added that the Corsican would proceed to Liverpool. That the liner was not seriously damaged was attributed to the fact that the Corsican was under reduced speed.

The Allan company today announced that another wireless message was received today from Capt. Cook, confirming the first announcement that the Corsican was not seriously damaged, and giving more details of the collision with the iceberg. When the low berg was sighted, said Captain Cook's message, the ship's engines were reversed, but not in time, and she touched the iceberg. Her bow was slightly stove, all damage being above the water line. Captain Cook said she was proceeding slowly toward Liverpool.

Prevented Catastrophe

BOSTON, Aug. 13.—General Manager Bryce J. Allan of the Allan line offices here today stated although the Canadian office had heard no further word from the liner Corsican which struck an iceberg off Belle Isle, near Newfoundland, he felt certain that both steamship and passengers were safe.

"From the reports received of the accident," he said, "I believe that the rule of this line to proceed with extreme caution when in a fog or in the vicinity of ice fields prevented another horrible marine tragedy."

TO VISIT AMERICA

CHICAGO, Aug. 13.—Sir George Reid, high commissioner for Australia, now enroute to Canada, will visit the United States, according to a personal letter received by Dr. E. G. Cook Adams, formerly of Australia. Sir George will be the guest of Dr. Adams here.

JURY DISAGREES IN GABLER CASE

Unable to Reach Verdict in Spite of Defendant's Alleged Admission of Guilt

CASE IS RETRIED TODAY

Try Four Times to Reach Verdict; Sent Back Three Times by Judge

John Gabler, accused of dynamiting fish in John's slough near the lower end of French island, July 22, when arraigned before Judge John Brindley pleaded not guilty when he learned there is a sixty day jail sentence in connection with a $50 to $200 fine for this offense. Later he admitted his guilt to at least three persons according to the testimony given at his trial in county court yesterday. In addition to this, two eye witnesses were placed on the stand yesterday. Nevertheless, after four attempts to arrive at a verdict, the jury of five men, who patiently listened to the evidence and the arguments of the lawyers, were unable to come to an agreement and it was necessary to call a new jury and try the case again. The second trial will be held in county court at 2 p. m. today.

Three times Judge Brindley sent the jury back to reach a verdict yesterday and when they were unable to come to an agreement the fourth time they were dismissed. District Attorney James Thompson and W. F. Wolfe, attorney for the defendant, appeared in court this morning when a new jury was drawn.

Witness Is Drunk

Henry Koepke, who was with Gabler in a boat at the time of the alleged dynamiting, although in such an intoxicated condition that he could hardly sit straight in the witness chair, was put on the stand late yesterday after a bench warrant had been issued to force his appearance in court. He testified that he saw a splash in the water and saw the fish rise to the surface but refused to admit that Gabler had used dynamite. He admitted talking with District Attorney Thompson in his office after Gabler had been arrested and he admitted that he had said that Gabler had done the dynamiting at that time.

When Attorney Thompson questioned Koepke as to where he got his drinks yesterday, Attorney Wolfe objected on the grounds that it was immaterial to the case. After his testimony, Koepke was ordered to the cell in the basement of the court house by Judge Brindley, "to sober up."

Rasmussen on Stand

Dr. A. T. Rasmussen, president of the La Crosse County Hunting and Fishing association, testified that Gabler had called on him in his office and had admitted that he dynamited the fish. He said that Gabler wanted him to help him out of his scrape, declaring that he did not know he was breaking the law and arguing that the penalty for such an offense was too severe.

Game Warden E. W. Gantsch testified that Gabler had approached him after his arrest and wanted to settle the matter. J. L. Erickson said that Gabler had told him he was in trouble but that he did not explain what it was. W. F. Wolfe, attorney for the defendant, in making his plea before the jury, bitterly scored the law which he said did not even show "common horse sense."

"There is no fundamental principle of law violated in this case," he said. "I would not, and I do not believe this jury will take this man from his wife, family and business and send him to jail because he took a few skipjacks and a couple of sheephead from the river. It is just that a man should be forced to associate with criminals in jail because of an offense of this nature. I would not send a man to prison for all the fish in the river."

Rich Man Safe

"There are laws on the statute books which are supposed to prevent the formation of trusts and monopolies. Do you ever hear of the men that violate these laws being sent to prison? And yet they would send up a man who caught a few worthless fish."

Mr. Wolfe closed his argument by declaring that Gabler did not intend to violate the law and that the testimony had not shown such intent.

After a short argument by Prosecuting Attorney Thompson in which he reminded the jurors of their oath to judge the case on its merits and dwell on the public demand for a severe law to prevent the dynamiting of fish, the case went to the jury. After being out more than an hour and being unable to agree on a verdict, the jury was dismissed.

ALDERMEN DENY GUILT

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 13.—The nine aldermen arrested for the first time Friday and for whom warrants were issued yesterday charging them with agreeing to accept a bribe, were arraigned before Justice Jeffries today and all pleaded not guilty. Their hearing was set for August 20. This is the same date that hearings were set for the other nine arrested over two weeks ago.

British Cabinet Sneaks Away From Suffragettes

LONDON, Aug. 13.—Fearing molestation by suffragettes, the cabinet members are slipping out of London for their vacations today as secretly as possible and under strong guards of detectives. Chancellor of the Exchequer Lloyd George and Attorney General Sir Rufus Isaacs escaped to the continent. The whereabouts of Premier Asquith, Foreign Secretary Sir Edward Grey, and Home Secretary McKenna are unknown.

Lord of the Admiralty Winston Churchill, who was reported to have been held up on his way to Sandwich yesterday and lectured for some time by suffragettes it is learned today did not stay to listen to the women's arguments. A barricade of the suffragettes' bicycles had been placed across the road to stop his automobile, but the chauffeur dashed into it, filling the air with fragments of machinery and vanished before the women had time to say anything.

3,000 KILLED IN TURKISH QUAKE

Fifty Thousand Left Homeless and Starving, Is the Report from Constantinople

THOUSANDS UNDER RUINS

Many Starve, Pinned Beneath Ruins of Their Homes; Send Troops to Rescue

BERLIN, Aug. 13.—Three thousand are known to have been killed in the earthquake in Southeastern Turkey, according to a message from Constantinople to the Tageblatt today. Fifty thousand are homeless and starving, it was added. An active crater is reported to have appeared on the Asiatic side of the sea of Marmora.

Conditions in the earthquake region were vastly worse than has yet been realized, later dispatches stated. Many persons are still alive under the ruins, starving. The Turkish government is doing its utmost to relieve the sufferers, but is wholly unable to cope with so serious a situation.

Unless outside aid is speedily extended it is said thousands must perish from exposure and lack of food.

NEGRO GETS SIXTY DAYS

Fred Martin, a negro employed in a restaurant, was sentenced to sixty days in the county jail by Judge John Brindley in county court yesterday on being found guilty of assault and battery. He was accused by Dolly Hadnock of "beating her up" with a beer bottle. The Hadnock woman appeared in court and exhibited a battered countenance as evidence of the severity of her lover's punishment. She said Martin attacked her because she was too sick to go to work.

HUNT MURDERERS FROM MILWAUKEE

Posses After Four Italian Desperadoes Who Shot and Fatally Hurt Two Men

ROB SALOON; SHOOT OWNER

Turn Guns on Liquor Dealer and Policeman and Maltreat Young Woman

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 13.—Hundreds of men led by sheriffs of two counties are scouring the country just west of this city today in an effort to capture four Italian desperadoes who shot and fatally wounded two men at Waukesha and West Allis, near here, early this morning. The Italians are known to be armed and a desperate battle is expected by the men in pursuit.

The four men entered the saloon of Alexander Watzlavik, 38, at Waukesha, twenty miles west of here, early today, and attempted to loot the cash register. Watzlavik pulled a revolver from under the bar and the four pounced on him. In the struggle that followed he was fatally shot. The men escaped after maltreating a sister of the saloonkeeper who came to his assistance from an upstairs living room. Watzlavik will die. His assailants fled toward Milwaukee, walking over the Northwestern railroad tracks.

Patrolman Charles Korn, 30, of West Allis, a Milwaukee suburb, was the next victim. He had been warned to watch for the men. He saw them approaching and commanded them to halt. "Throw up your hands, you are under arrest," Patrolman Korn shouted.

One of the men laughed derisively as the officer started to approach. They turned and ran. Korn again commanded them to halt, when one turned and fired twice. Korn sank upon the railroad tracks desperately wounded. He called for assistance for ten minutes and later crawled three blocks to a house where he aroused the occupants and gave the alarm. He is now in a Milwaukee hospital and not expected to outlive the day.

A posse in automobiles, under Chief of Police Haupt of West Allis, joined the forces of Sheriff Arnold of Milwaukee county at noon in the search of the foreigners.

According to friends of Watzlavik, the wounded Waukesha saloonist, he had received at least a dozen black hand letters within the past two months. They urged him, they said, to put the threatening missives in the hands of the police, but he refused, saying he could take care of himself. Watzlavik was dying at noon today.

Six deputies overpowered the young man and extinguished the flames. Guthrie was taken to the jail hospital suffering serious burns. To the doctors he talked of a procession of marble statues led by the statue of Venus which he stole on one of his burglary excursions.

DARROW DEFENSE STARTED TODAY

Attorney Appel Declares It Shameful that Lawyer Should Be Accused

FRANKLIN WORSE THAN JUDAS

Says Iscariot Had Good Taste to Hang Self After Betraying the Master

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 13.—The opening argument of the defense in the Darrow bribery trial was made today by Attorney Horace H. Appel. A huge crowd jammed the corridors of the building when the attorneys appeared, being so great that Darrow himself had difficulty in reaching the door of the court room. Darrow will make the closing argument for the defense.

In his argument Appel deplored the fact that Darrow had ever been brought to trial at all.

Shame to Accuse Darrow

"What a shame," he said, "that Clarence Darrow, whose name is inscribed in the heart of every laboring man in this country, should, in his declining years, be pointed at as a perjurer and a criminal. What a shame that, because the prosecution says 'This looks suspicious,' he should be forced to risk the dark penitentiary and a grave with a headstone 'He died in disgrace.'"

Discussing Bert Franklin, Appel said: "Judas Iscariot was a better man than Bert Franklin or John Harrington. He was a gentleman and hanged himself after betraying his Master."

Appel denounced Deputy District Attorney Ford's statement that the case reeked with perjury and corruption as a "dirty, malicious, contemptible lie." Leaning over the railing, he roared into the faces of the jurors:

"You heard the testimony of Guy Biddinger, the detective from Chicago, that city of corruption, with a police force as rotten as New York. Biddinger met Oscar Lawler, and Robert Foster of the National Erectors' association, and connived with them in an effort to trap Darrow with a dictagraph. What was Lawler doing there? What was Harrington doing there? Harrington was on the other side of the case."

Reads Franklin Testimony

Appel read portions of Bert Franklin's testimony showing that Franklin went from the United States marshal's office to work for the McNamara defense, having been recommended by United States District Attorney McCormick, "who was working hand in hand with Lawler."

CLARK RULING RESPONSIBLE FOR PASSAGE

Lacks Two Votes of Two-thirds Needed, but the Speaker Rules It Is Passed

IS TWO-THIRDS OF VOTING

Missourian Holds Rule Applies Only to the Percentage of Solons Voting

CAUSES A BITTER DEBATE

Congressmen Before Final Vote Denounce President for Vetoing the Bill

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—By a ruling of Speaker Clark, the house late this afternoon passed the wool bill over President Taft's veto. The vote was 174 to 80, nineteen insurgents voting with the democrats.

On the first vote, as announced by the speaker, the democratic insurgent alliance had apparently failed to pass the bill by two votes. Ten members who were paired with absentees, voted present. Clark ruled that it only took two-thirds of the members voting yea or nay and, therefore, ruled that the two-thirds had voted "yea" and the bill passed. A violent dispute followed the republicans viciously attacking Clark. Majority Leader Underwood made the point of order which enabled the speaker to declare the bill passed.

An hour before the house convened the ways and means committee met to plan the tariff battle. Republicans on the committee, led by Representative Sereno Payne of New York, strenuously opposed the vote. Representative Underwood, although disliking the La Follette bill, sent to Taft as a substitute for the house wool bill, insisted that the democrats should "complete the record," by trying to pass it over the president's head.

Defends Taft

President Taft's veto was defended by Representative Cannon of Illinois; Hill of Connecticut; Green of Iowa; and Utter of Rhode Island. Representative Hill said the issue was "protection against free trade." Representative Utter accused the democrats of playing politics, in foisting the wool bill upon Taft, denouncing it as "insincere chicanery." Representative Fitzgerald (Dem., N. Y.) ridiculed the tariff boards report on the wool schedule, denouncing it as "guess work."

Taft and the republican party were flayed by Representative Hefflin, (Dem., Ala.)

Flays G. O. P.

"The republican party," said Hefflin, "won its last election on false pretenses. It has notoriously violated its tariff reduction pledges. This wool schedule, Taft admits himself is indefensible. Yet he vetoes its revision for a combination of trust magnates and robber barons that little children may shiver this winter without sufficient clothing while the wool trust, the worst of all, adds to its millions."

JOHNSON TO FIGHT FOR WIFE'S SAKE

CHICAGO, Aug. 13.—Jack Johnson, retired—perhaps—champion of the world, today declared he expected to receive an offer from any fight club for a ten round battle with Joe Jeannette, to be staged the latter part of this month.
 "I expect to sign up for a go with Joe today or tomorrow," said the black champion. "I have decided to fight this battle for my wife's sake. When I told her I had retired from the ring she was much chagrined and persuaded me to enter just one mill. I'll start training as soon as I sign the articles."

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—Further overtures are to be made to Jack Johnson to fight Joe Jeannette, who is now claiming the belt the champion released by retiring. Victor Breyer, the French boxing promoter, is coming over to try to bring about a match. He will offer Johnson $30,000 and $1,000 expenses.

FAN-ATICAL FANCIES

Apparently Hank O'Day, former umpire, is about done as manager of the Cincinnati Reds for numerous dispatches are naming new leaders. The latest report is that the club officials want Knabe, the star second baseman of the Phillies, for manager. Miller Huggins of St. Louis is another man who has been mentioned as a candidate for the managership of the Reds. However, it is said that there is no chance of Knabe getting away from Philadelphia unless the Phillies can get Sweeney, Boston's second sacker, and their chances for getting this star seem slight for the Braves have rejected offers of $10,000 for this heavy hitter.

Jimmy Block, the White Sox catcher, who with Blackburne, was given to Milwaukee in exchange for Schalk, has refused to sign with the Brewers because of the salary offered him. It is said that he was offered the same money he was getting in Chicago but he wanted more as the American association season closes several weeks earlier than the American league.

Madison succeeded in handing Mike Malloy's Wausau club two defeats yesterday, one of them being a 1 to 0 shutout. After a splendid start when it looked as if they would win the pennant, Wausau has been slipping until they now occupy fourth place. Joe Safford, playing with Madison, had a good day at bat yesterday, for in the two games he was at bat six times and he poked out four hits.

It appears that the pitching staff of the world's champions is not as effective as it was in 1910 and 1911 and the twirlers have not been hurling in anywhere near the form they formerly did. Chief Bender has been slipping this year and has been knocked out frequently, a practically unheard of feat for the last two years. Coombs is pitching good ball while Eddie Plank, the veteran, cannot be relied upon to pitch winning ball all the time. Mack has two good youngsters in Houck and Brown who are doing well for their first year but they lack experience.

The Chicago White Sox, like the St. Louis Browns, have given up all hope of winning this year's pennant and both clubs are now directing all their attention toward getting a strong team for next year. Callahan and Stovall are now busy signing recruits and many of these are reporting to them every day. These youngsters are being tried out at once and many unfamiliar names have appeared in the box scores of these teams every day.

LYNXVILLE BEATS PRAIRIE DU CHIEN

LYNXVILLE, Wis., Aug. 13.—In one of the most exciting and best played games seen here this season the Lynxville team beat Prairie du Chien by the count of 4 to 1 Sunday. The game was not decided until the eighth inning, when Sebastian muffed a fly which gave the locals one run and they then batted in two more tallies, this giving them three scores and the game.

Copey, twirling for Lynxville, outpitched Orr, a former slab artist on the Dubuque Three-I league team, and the local pitcher would have shut out Prairie du Chien had it not been for an overthrow by Randall in the ninth inning, when the visitors made their only tally.

Noggle and Bromley took part in the most sensational play of the day which occurred in the third inning, when both men raced into center field for a Texas leaguer. The ball hit Noggle's glove and glanced off, but was caught by Bromley.

Score: R H E Lynxville . . . 00100003—4 7 2 Prairie du Chien . . . 000000001—1 4 3 Batteries: Copey and Withey; Orr and Kleinpelt.

CANADIAN BOAT WINS

CHICAGO, Aug. 13.—The Patricia, the Canadian challenger, won the second race of the International cup series here yesterday. The Michigan finished one minute and 30 seconds behind the Patricia.

WATCHING THE SCOREBOARD

The Giants raised last year's pennant, but dropped the game in the Cardinals' basket, 8 to 6. The Giants did some tall hill climbing, with Matty leading, but the suffragists clinched the fight in the fifth.

Chicago had to use both Lavender and Smith to take the game from Donnelly, who tossed for the Bean Eaters.

Cincinnati snatched the game from the Quaker city aggregation in the ninth, edging out with one tally to the good.

Five hits bunched in the seventh gave Pittsburg the third game of the Brooklyn series. Nap Rucker worked against "Babe" Adams, neck and neck for six innings, but took gas in the seventh.

The Naps trimmed Ed Walsh in the only American league contest of the day.

The Cubs, climbing rapidly, rejoiced today at the reduction of the Giants' lead to six and one-half games.

BORTON HITTING WELL

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Aug. 13.—First Sacker Borton of St. Joseph, Mo., is expected to go back to the major leagues as the result of his remarkable batting streak for the past few days. In yesterday's game he made his tenth hit in ten times at bat. Borton came here from the Chicago White Sox.

BEN DREW A THROW THAT WASN'T A BLANK!

BY HARRY DALLY

For The Nervous Woman,

Or the woman who experiences hot flashes nothing is so good to soothe, quiet and calm the nervous system as a pure glyceric extract of native medicinal plants, and most favorably known as Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. In younger years some women suffer from dizziness, or fainting spells, hysteria, headache, bearing-down feelings and pain. All these symptoms of irregularity and female disturbance are relieved by the use of this famous "Prescription" of Doctor Pierce.

As a powerful, invigorating tonic "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system, and is particularly to the organs distinctly feminine. For over-worked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," house-keepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, it is an excellent appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

"My disease was called neurosis," writes Mrs. Lydia McDowell, of Meosota, Mich., Route 1. "I had nervous chills and numb spells and they would leave me very weak. Then I had inflammation and the doctor said I had a floating kidney. I doctored seven months with our family physician. He said I would have to have an operation. Then I stopped taking his medicine. After taking three bottles of Dr. Pierce's medicine I have not had any nervous chills or weak spells. I am better than for years."

My daughter is now taking the "Prescription" and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, also the "Pellets" for nervousness and weak, tired feeling. These remedies have helped her ever so much in a short time. We have great faith in your medicines for female troubles.

Mrs. McDowell. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets induce mild natural bowel movement.

TAX DODGING EXPOSED

The statement made by Chairman
Haugen of the state tax commission
that as a result of successful work,
under the income tax law, in unearthing sources of income, there has been brought to light a vast amount
of personal property upon the as-essment rolls, is exceedingly timely and significant.

For one thing, it shows that in many cases individuals and corporations have for years and years been evading the payment of their just share of taxes. The extent to which this tax-dodging has been carried on
is shown by Chairman Haugen's
statement that if the taxable property unearthed by the income tax assessors were assessed as personal property, many persons would have to pay five or six times more taxes
than they are required to pay under the income tax plan. Tax-dodging has certainly been successful under the old personal property tax system.

For another thing the revelation
made by Tax Commissioner Haugen
viewed in connection with the source of the opposition to the income tax law, shows how unscrupulous are the methods and how strong is the determination of some men in resisting any and all efforts to compel
them to contribute their just share
toward the expense of maintaining government.

Mind, men of large means, who
each year have concealed personal property upon which they should have paid taxes amounting to several million dollars in the aggregate, are now fighting a law that

Quips and Cranks and Wanton Wiles

A City Street
They took a few old bricks
And they took a little tar,
With various ingredients
Imported from afar.
They hammered it and rolled it,
And then they went away—
They said they had a pavement
That would last for many a day.

But they came with picks and smote
it
To lay a water main,
And then they called the workmen
To put it back again.
To run a railway cable
They took it up some more,
And then they put it back again
Just where it was before.

They took it up for conduits
To run the telephone,
And then they put back again
As hard as any stone.
They took it up for wires
To feed the electric light,
And then they put it back again
Which was no more than right.

Oh, the pavement's full of furrows,
There are patches everywhere;
You'd like to ride upon it,
But it's seldom that you dare.
It's a very handsome pavement,
A credit to the town,
But they're always diggin' of it up
Or puttin' of it down.

There was no mistaking the charges against him.
"Bang!" went the judge's gavel
with magisterial impatience.
"Hurry up! What's the charge?"
"Pifflicated—stewed, yer 'onor,"
answered one of the patrolmen.
"Shay, can I explain? Zish a mistake."

"Sure. Cut in. What's the matter with you?"
"Iz dish way. I'm Mule Boose Mooster."
"You're—you're what?"
"I shay I'm Moose Bool Booser."
"I get the booser part all right.
Come, let's have the rest again."
"You don't understand. I shay I'm Boose Mul Mooser."
"You're soused. That's what you are. Dont you dare jest with the dignity of this tribunal. Officer, can you enlighten the court regarding
what the prisoner is trying to say?"
"Yes, yer 'onor. He means he's a

There were millions!
Why don't you know that some of
the very worst disease germs roaming around are so infinitesimal that thousands of them could be assembled on the point of an ordinary pin.
They are none the less deadly because they are small.

How do you know but that the very telephone you talk into every day isn't a rendezvous for a choice collection of disease germs that are just laying back and waiting for someone to prey on?

No telephone mouth-piece that
isn't disinfected every day is clean.
Some people will let their telephone go from one year's end to another without a bath. And they will talk into and handle those same telephones as if they were as clean and
inoffensive as a breath of fresh air,
when in reality, they are as dangerous as a rattlesnake—more so, in fact.

When did YOU disinfect the mouth-piece of your telephone last?
What's that? You never have?
Well, what do you know about
that?

For heaven's sake, in the name of cleanliness and all that is sanitary,
at least unscrew the mouthpiece of your 'phone and wash it with some sort of antiseptic solution, especially if several persons talk into it daily.
The telephone mouth-piece looks
innocent enough, but it isn't.

Scientists say it is a prolific breeder of disease under unsanitary conditions.
Swat the microbes in your telephone mouth-piece TODAY.

ADOPT ROAD BILL

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—By a vote of 37 to 21 this afternoon the senate adopted the senate substitute
to the house provision in the postoffice appropriation bill extending fed-

of highways. The amendment creates

GIRL DRIVES CADILLAC 1,200 MILES ACROSS COUNTRY

Laura Correll Makes Tour From Canton to Joplin
Miss Laura Correll attracted considerable attention in Joplin, Missouri, recently, when she rolled into
that city in a Cadillac touring car,
holding the wheel herself. Miss Cor-rell, chaperoned by her aunt, Mrs. A.
C. McDonald, had driven from her home in Canton, Ohio, cross country
to Joplin, covering this 1,200 miles,
which is a considerable distance for a young woman to drive. During her tour she touched at Lima, Fort Wayne, Champaign, St. Louis and Kansas City. Miss Correll was eight days on the trip and averaged about 100 miles a day. She found the roads in Ohio and Indiana excellent, but struck some very bad stretches in Illinois and Missouri.

Miss Correll had no difficulty
whatever on her tour which was so successful that she was extremely enthusiastic over her experience. Her enthusiasm extended to the efficiency of the Cadillac which she was able to manage with perfect ease.
The machine averaged about 15 1/2 miles to a gallon of gasoline. Miss Correll is now planning a similar trip
through the state of Kansas.

XXV. The Encounter.

With the surprise, a wave of sheer and utter disgust swept over me. I had come very sure of myself, quite certain that before an hour had passed I should have Nancy free
again, and that she and Mrs. Lathrop and I would be well on our way back toward the village. I meant to do all this, as I have said, by stealth; but I had quite realized the possibility, or even probability, of
some sharp personal encounter,
and in my heart of hearts I had secretly looked forward to it. But suddenly to find myself trapped and boiled in had not for a moment entered into my reckoning. I had been caught and locked up like a
school-boy, and for a while a sickening sense of humiliation triumphed
even over my anger, a sense that sapped at my strength like a very fever. Even now I hate to recall the moment, to bring back again to memory the petulant and weakened
force with which I put my shoulder
to the door, only to hear a little groan of its double bolted oak, and
the rough-voiced, unfeminine giggle
that answered my effort from the other side.

I tried the door again and again
without success, but whether it was indeed beyond my strength, still linguorous with disgrace, I do not know. But, at any rate, although I made the oak cry aloud and again,
bolt and panel still held and all I got for my effort was a bruised
shoulder.

Nor, when I had tried the window,
did I have any better success with the bars. I could bend them a little,
to be sure, bend them with what seemed to me a great effort, about
as much as they had moved under
my hand from my insecure purchase among the ivy the night before. So that it almost seemed to me that the bars must have been changed, that my coming had been planned for and expected; and I sickened still more at the thought.

So certain did this idea become to me, that I took no comfort from the fact that these bars, too, were rusty,
that their heavy surfaces were so
channeled and scarred by corrosion,
that my gloves, and even the palms
of my hands, were cut and torn.
Because now I could not tear them
away I felt that they were other than those which I had bent so easily the evening before, which certainly added by implication the certainty that I had fallen into a well-laid trap. I felt that when I last found Nancy again I could barely
look her in the eyes, but must stand with bowed head before her like
some bitches boy.

After an eternity of this sort of thing I felt in my pocket for my matches, only to find that I had lost
them. Suddenly I thought back until I remembered. I had struck
one match when I first found the room in darkness, but, in my surprise at the barrenness of its flare revealed, I must have dropped the box which held the others. So now I went down on my hands and
knees, and becoming the creeping
thing I already felt myself, fumbled
the floor in search of them. At last near the door I recovered them,
and by the light of the first one
found the fixture and lit the jet.

This really was the room which had been Nancy's. That my first glance in the jumping, flickering light showed me. Every trace of her occupancy had gone, except the great chair with its tattered covering, which had distinguished her room from the others. But even in my groping in the dark I had known
it to be Nancy's room. Humanity,
in spite of the materialists, is a strangely spiritual thing, which leaves, even in passing, a certain
invisible radiance, an intangible,
nebulous train of personal aura,
faint and mystical, but still softly
vibrant and perceptible, at least to
one other human being, whose receptive senses are attuned by love.
To limit mankind to five senses is
as obviously superficial as are most of the dogmatic dictums of science.
I really knew before I lit my first match that Nancy was gone, and as certainly I knew now that this had once been her room.

For a while I was so selfishly
absorbed in the thought of my con-
ing shame when I should find her,
that even my curiosity was dead-
ened; but with the bare little room
so lately hers, and now so plainly
before me in the jumping gas light,
I began to wonder, at first in a faint, subconscious sort of way and
then with a sudden leaping apprehension, where they had taken her.
I suppose that I had felt, even without a full realization, that she was
only somewhere else in the building,
that in moving her from this room,
they had simply put her in another;
and that, once I was out, I should find her wherever she was. But now as my vague disquietude took
a more concrete form and sprang in a moment from numb speculation
to positive dread, the thought of that menacing figure of the man in
the brown derby came before me,
and I found myself standing stark
afraid, cold with dread and a consuming, murderous rage; for, of a sudden, I had remembered the
"dark room."

It was at this moment that the door swung open, and the man in all the world whom I most desired
to see stepped in. I had not heard

I think he had meant to meet me
with some mocking commonplace,
but he must have seen the murder
in my eyes, and like a wise man
determined to bide his time; for almost as the door shut I found myself looking into the mouth of a revolver.

"Sit down," said Doctor Morrison, very quietly.
Very reluctantly I turned and
took the great, tattered chair which had once been Nancy's. I wished with all my heart to remain on my feet; for standing, I could better
watch my opportunity, and when it came, take advantage of it. But this was probably the reason he desired me sitting, and it was perfectly evident that he wished nothing better than some excuse for pulling the trigger. When I was once seated, however, he began to laugh.

"Your particular form of insanity," he began, "interests me extremely. I assure you that we have very few patients who come here of their own accord. In fact, in all the time that I have been connected with this institution, I do not remember any one, who realized that he must stay here for life, voluntarily seeking such a lengthy course

of treatment and confinement."
"Where have you put her?" I asked.

Health and Beauty Advice BY MRS. MAE MARTYN

Alea M.: A plain quinzoin hair
tonic will quickly stop the irritation
and soothe your tender scalp. To prepare, pour 1 ounce quinzoin into 1/2
pint alcohol and to this add 1/2 pint
water. Using this quinzoin tonic regularly banishes dandruff and excess oiliness, makes the scalp healthy and induces an abundant growth of even-
colored, fluffy, brilliant hair.

Myra S.: I know you feel uncomfortable carrying around so much fat
this hot weather, but if you dissolve 4 ounces parnotis in 1 1/2 pints hot water and take a tablespoonful before meals you will soon regain your former weight and shapely figure.
The parnotis treatment is quite harmless and dissolves the fat without any present of future ill effects.
After your weight is where you want
it, your flesh will be solid and the skin free from wrinkles. Then, too,
this method does not call for dieting
or violent exercise.

Bride: The skin on your hands
and face will be of a velvety softness
and free from blemish if you apply
each day a plain almozoin cream-
jelly made by adding 1 ounce almozoin to 1/2 pint cold water in which has been stirred 2 teaspoonfuls glycerine. This cream-jelly is elegant
for ridding the skin of pimples,
blackheads, freckles, lines and that
"muddy" condition. It also rounds
out hollows and lends a charming
tint and youth-look to prematurely
aged skins. You will find the almozoin cream-jelly far superior to anything you ever used, and it positively
will not grow hairs.

Ethel: Use a delatone paste and you will be quickly rid of those annoying hairs. With some water mix
enough powdered delatone to cover
the hairs not wanted. Apply, and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off and wash
the skin. This removes every trace of hair and leaves the skin firm and smooth.

Mrs. Bob: Straggly eyebrows can be made to come in thick and silky
if pyroxin be applied occasionally
with forefinger. For short lashes, apply pyroxin at lash roots with forefinger and thumb and they will come in long and curly. Be careful and don't get any pyroxin where no hair is wanted.

Edith: Aching eye-muscles do not indicate a pressing need for glasses.
Try this harmless eye tonic and I am sure you will find prompt relief: In 1 pint clear, cold water dissolve 1
ounce crystos, then each day put 2 or 3 drops of this in the eyes. The crys-tos eye-tonic is especially nice for granulated lids and to remove foreign particles. To dull eyes it gives a delightful sparkle and expression.

Aleda: Perspiration will not cause
your hair to become "mussy" and unmanageable if you shampoo frequently with canthrox. Just dissolve a teaspoonful of canthrox in a cup of hot water and you will have sufficient
mixture for a thorough cleansing.
Canthrox creates a wealth of thick,
creamy lather that gently and completely removes every atom of dust,
dandruff and excess oil. Its use
keeps the scalp clean and healthy
and insures an abundance of brilliant
hair, even in color and of a soft,
silken fluff. After a canthrox
shampoo the hair dries quickly and
is easy to do up in any style.

Mrs. R. M.: You must discard powder and greasy creams, because these clog the pores and cause the skin to grow rough, blotchy, oily and freckled. Using this simple, inexpensive lotion will soon clear your skin
and give to it that delightful youthtint so much admired. Into 1/2 pint witch hazel (or hot water) stir 2
teaspoonfuls glycerine, then add 4 ounces spumax. Apply sparingly to the skin and rub lightly until dry.
The spumax lotion is invisible when
on and imparts a velvety smoothness
to the skin. It is especially fine for hot weather, because perspiration
does not spot it, nor does it rub off.

O. L. R.: Your system craves a cleanser and tonic. Into 1/2 pint alcohol pour 1 ounce karden, then add 1/2 cupful sugar and hot water to make a quart. A tablespoonful before meals is the dose, and a course of this treatment will eliminate all poi-
sons from the body, build up waste,
worn tissues and give to you full health, strength and energy. This tonic is particularly good for lost
appetite and that tired, "all-gone"
feeling. Keep the karden tonic handy
for emergency.

SUES HUSBAND'S EMPLOYER

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—Representatives of Mrs. Emily Ladd, a wealthy Brooklyn widow, now in Europe, today characterized as purely a piece of spite work a $25,000 alienation suit filed against her by the wife of Frederick Cocher, coachman for Mrs. Ladd. The woman was served with the papers in the case as she boarded a liner for England. It was alleged by those speaking for her that there has been marital trouble in the Cocher family for a year and a half, and that Mrs. Cocher's suit was simply a case of revenging herself on her husband.

SETS DATE FOR END OF PROBES

Sam Schepps Says All Rosenthal Inquiries Will Stop on February 25

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Aug. 12.—"You can mark the date on the 25th of February when all investigations will end," said Sam Schepps to a crowd of local officers here today, and as a result the police are now trying to figure out just what the man who is said to have handled the money for the murder of the gambler, Rosenthal, in New York means.

"Whitman is an ambitious young man," Schepps continued, "and aims to be governor of New York. You know it is only a step from the governor's office to that of president."

"Where we made an awful mistake is not in changing the number on the auto," the officers quoted Mr. Schepps as saying.

While awaiting the arrival of representatives from District Attorney Whitman's office, Schepps is evidently enjoying the stir his arrest has caused. He declared to his guards that he was the key to the entire case concerning the police graft in New York and that when he gets the "entire arch will fall through." Schepps firmly declares he has made no confession, but that he is in possession of all the facts, both as to the killing of Rosenthal and the collection of protection money by the police.

Y., Aug. 13.—Before starting on a hill climbing expedition with his son Archie today, Colonel Roosevelt wistfully inspected a costly hand made shotgun, which a gunmaker wanted to present to him. "Take it away," he said, "and keep it a year. If then you still are of the same mind, offer it again."

The gun was of Krupp steel, with a Circean walnut stock, inlaid with gold figures of Hiawatha and Minnehaha and was said to be worth $750.

STORK NEARLY DUE

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—Unusual activity and some degree of excitement in and about the John Jacob Astor home in Fifth avenue today gave the eager watchers over in the park the idea that the long heralded stork might arrive "almost any time now" with the $3,000,000 Astor baby. Dr. Cragin, the specialist in charge of the case, would not give any definite information and declined to state whether the girl widow would take her accustomed airing in Central park today. PRESENT DAY HATS AND STYLES IN HAIR DRESSING CAUSE LOSS OF HAIR

We Cannot Change the Styles, But We Can Check Falling Hair

Up to the time we began to civilize him a bald headed Indian was a thing unknown. Wearing nothing on his head except the covering furnished by nature and being a stranger to the use of a hair brush, especially the public one, the scalp and hair had plenty of ventilation, much sunlight and, hence, a condition favorable to a luxuriant growth of hair existed at all times.

It was the adoption of air and light excluding head gears and artificial head decorations generally, together with the occasional use of a community hair brush, which gave the dandruff germ its opportunity. Since this parasite has multiplied to an alarming degree until now there is hardly a person who is not troubled more or less with dandruff and falling hair.

Many, to be sure, have passed the worrying stage. Having become chronically bald they realize that nothing is capable of producing natural hair for them. Let these be a warning to all who are experiencing the significant annoyance of dandruff and falling hair.

Dandruff, which is due to a germ, and falling hair can both be overcome by the regular use of Newbro's Herpicide.

This wonderful scalp remedy kills the vicious germ which causes dandruff, cleanses the scalp and stops the hair from coming out. The destruction of the germ permits the hair to grow naturally and luxuriantly as nature intends.

Herpicide makes the hair bright, snappy, light and fluffy.

Newbro's Herpicide in 50c and $1.00 sizes is sold by all dealers who guarantee it to do all that is claimed. If you are not satisfied your money will be refunded.

Applications obtained at the better barber shops and hair dressing parlors.

Send 10c in stamps or silver for sample and booklet to The Herpicide Co., Dept. R., Detroit, Mich. Hoeschler Bros., special agents.

The cloudburst which swept the country to the east of Pierre Sunday night, carried away the Northwestern tracks in many places between here and Blunt. The trestle, which dived the passenger, is believed to have been weakened by the storm.

It will be impossible to repair the damage and resume traffic for several days.

BOARD OF HEALTH FAVORS WELL SITE

Water Supply Will Be Taken from Marsh North
of Myrick Park; Decision Today

The last obstacle in the way of the installation of the wells for the new water plant in the marsh north of Myrick park was removed today when City Attorney A. H. Schubert was notified by the state board of health of their approval of the site chosen by the common council. The board at first requested the city to build a concrete curb in the wells extending to a considerable depth and also several feet in height from the top of the wells so as to prevent contamination by surface water. This request, however, was not insisted upon and the city is instructed to build the wells without the curbing. The board reserves the right to demand the curbing in the event they find by inspection that the water is subject to contamination without this added protection. The special water committee objected to the curbing because the special engineers, hired to investigate, reported that the surface soil of the marsh afforded all the protection necessary. The work of digging the wells will start as soon as the contracts have been awarded which will probably be the latter part of this month.

A big crowd rushed to the shore when the machine was seen to pitch into the water.

SAYS BRITISH KICK IS RIGHT

Senator Burton Declares
We Cannot Allow U. S.
Ships Free Passage
Consistently

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—With the prospect of an early agreement on the Panama canal bill and its approval by President Taft, senators and representatives practically agreed today on the prediction that Great Britain would carry her protest against the free tolls and prohibition of railroad owned ships, to the Hague tribunal.

Speaking for the opponents of the bill, Senator Burton of Ohio today asserted that the measure was a palpable violation of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty.

"I am familiar with the circumstances under which that treaty was framed," Burton said. "Secretary Hay had demanded the so-called open door in China. Russia and other nations acquiesced in his demand. Our policy for 100 years had been one of insistence upon absolute equality in all navigable channels. To be consistent now we must agree to grant equal privileges to all nations as regards the canal. The treaty in the plainest language expresses this intention."

"There is another argument against free tolls and that is the unfairness of giving to ship owners the free use of a canal which will cost $400,000,000 before it is completed and millions annually for maintenance. I do not anticipate that the consumer or producer will gain any material advantage from free tolls."

PLAN TO ABDUCT CZAR

BERLIN, Aug. 13.—The usual stereotyped official denial was sent out from St. Petersburg today regarding the story of a plot among the sailors on the warship Ivan Selatouast at Sebastopol to kidnap the czar from his yacht, the Standard, and force him to abdicate or proclaim a genuinely limited monarchy. It is known here, however, that there has not been so much discontent as at present both in the Russian army and navy since immediately after the war with Japan. The government is so uneasy that it has filled the ranks with secret service agents.

OBJECT TO CHINESE LAW

HONG KONG, Aug. 31.—The real reason England objects to the acceptance by ex-Chief Justice Sir Francis Pigott of Hong Kong of President Yuan's offer to make him his judicial adviser, it is said in business and official circles here today, is that Yuan wants him as an expert on "extra-territoriality" to aid in depriving foreigners of the right to exercise authority in China. Foreign residents are horrified at the idea of becoming subject to Chinese law and England does not want an Englishman to assist in bringing such a thing about.

FINANCIAL SIDE OF 1908 DEMOCRATIC CONGRESSIONAL CAMPAIGN EXPLAINED TO SENATE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—The financial side of the democratic congressional campaign of 1908 was detailed today to the senate campaign contributions investigating committee by Representative J. Smith Lloyd of Missouri, chairman and treasurer of the committee at that time.

The Missouri said he was solicitor and disbursing of the funds. He kept a full record and told the committee that the total receipts were $27,645 and the expenditures were $27,532. Seven thousand dollars were received from sale of campaign literature, including $1,600 paid by Charles A. Keane of New York, for speeches he sent to voters. Sales of the democratic hand book totalled $1,335.

"Members of congress, in amounts of from $25 to $200 contributed in all $6,750," Lloyd declared. "There were only two $200 contributions— from Champ Clark and Burton Harrison. In five and ten dollar contributions we received $8,250. Former Senator Jones contributed $3,500, Herman Ridder of New York, W. G. Conrad of Montana and R. P. Daniel of Kentucky gave $250, each."

The committee plans tomorrow to examine Benjamin B. Odell, former governor of New York. Previous witnesses have testified that Odell was in charge of the New York republican campaign to assist which E. H. Harriman raised his famous fund.

BURNS LOCATES THE HIGHER-UPS

The Noted Detective Tells Whitman Names of Those Responsible for Police Graft

RACE ON AFTER SCHEPPS

Police and District Attorney's Men Both Rushing to Claim the "Paymaster"

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—The Rosenthal grand jury was expected today to return seven indictments in connection with the month old murder and the wholesale police graft charges growing out of it, the "higher up" triumvirate, whom, it became known, W. J. Burns has named to District Attorney Whitman as the men responsible for police graft. Their exposure and trial will come later. The detective, it is said, told the prosecutor that his weeks of work on the police graft-murder scandal, including the operation of gambling and disorderly houses, blazed a trail of extortion and graft to three men. Burns named the men. He said they were a big lawyer, who represents the city administration; a high police official, and a hotel keeper, who is a go-between of the Albany politicians.

The expected indictments, Whitman said, probably would be against the men already held for the Rosenthal murder and Jack Sullivan and William Shapiro, driver of the murder car.

An interesting cross continental race was on today between the assistant and two detectives representing Whitman on one side and police department detectives on the other, hurrying to Hot Springs for possession of Sam Schepps.

The gambling "murder paymaster" was thought to be a prize worth fighting for. The district attorney told the Arkansas police to give Schepps to nobody but his men.

District Attorney Whitman today planned to open a safety deposit box and a large safety vault held in the name of Lieutenant Charles Becker in a trust company. The prosecutor professed to believe that much evidence of value would be obtained from the boxes.

Emory R. Buckner, chosen as counsel for the board of aldermen probers, began preparations to open the inquiry September 4. The citizens' committee investigation was planned to start tomorrow with a mass meeting in Cooper union.

He became a civil engineer and was for several years engaged in railroad construction in Iowa. His brother studied law with the late Senator David B. Hill. During the later years of his life, Mr. Bleekman has been engaged in the lumber business.

NELSONS TO PLAY AT WINONA SUNDAY

The Nelson Clothing company baseball team goes to Winona Sunday where they will meet the fast Schellhas team of that city in a return game. These two nines played at League park here some time ago and the Winona club won out after a hard battle by a one run margin, but the locals are confident that they can reverse the score this time and they are determined to win from their opponents. As these two teams are among the strongest in their cities, it is expected that the battle will be just as close and interesting as the first one was. The Nelsons have been strengthened since they signed up Nally, the former Outcast pitcher, and they are confident that with him on the slab they can down their opponents.

New Mexico Congressman Says Taft Promised Jobs for Convention Votes

FIGHTS HIS APPOINTMENT

Declares Marshal in State Was Named Because Cousin Was Taft Supporter

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—Charges that President Taft traded patronage for Chicago delegates' votes were renewed today by Representative Ferguson (Dem., N. M.) exposing Taft's appointment of Secundino Romero, as United States marshal for New Mexico. Ferguson stated today that the state judiciary committee is considering the charges before confirming Romero's appointment.

"The sequence of events, political and otherwise, is the basis of my opposition to Romero's confirmation by the senate," said Ferguson. "Romero was twice turned down by Taft for the marshalship. But soon after the Chicago convention, Taft sent in Romero's name. The peculiar circumstance is that Federico Chavez, named as Roosevelt delegate from Mexico voted for Taft on every roll call at the republican convention. Representative Curry of New Mexico is authority for my charge that when he remonstrated with Chavez was repudiating this agreement to vote for Roosevelt, Chavez said 'I've got to do it to get my cousin, Romero, an appointment.'"

Representative Curry, an ardent Roosevelt worker today denied that he had told Ferguson that Chavez had declared he had to vote for Mr. Taft.

DENY RIGHTS OF CLERKS TO STRIKE

Senate Permits Postal Employees to Organize, but Bars Them from the A. F. of L.

CAUSES A SHARP DEBATE

Senators Declare Postal Employees Cannot Go on Strike Against the Government

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—Following a bitter debate in which Senators Root and La Follette passed acrimonious words, the senate this afternoon voted 49 to 7 to permit postal employees to organize, but to prohibit the affiliation of any of their organizations with others that countenance strikes or lockouts.

The effect of the amendment, it is said, will be to bar organizations which co-operate with the American Federation of Labor. Several senators, however, held that as the American Federation of Labor, of itself could not declare a strike, the provision would not affect that organization.

Postal clerks won a victory in the adoption of a further amendment granting them the right of appeal to congress and permission to furnish members with information as to their work.

Can Join Anything

Senator Smith (Dem., N. C.) contended that no law has prevented an American citizen from joining any organization. If postal employees were dissatisfied with their compensation, he shouted, or with the conditions of service, they had a right to give up their positions at will.

"No organization under which a strike against the government by government employees could be arranged should be tolerated," said Senator Root of New York. "No organization must assume to coerce the government. Striking is not illegal, but it must not be turned against the public interest."

"It will be a sorry day for this country when we grant the right of government employees to strike. There would soon be no government."

Senator Sutherland of Utah declared the house provision permitting organization was equivalent to an invitation for the postal employees to affiliate with the American Federation of Labor, and that body would then be able to call out postal employees on a sympathetic strike.

To Pass Parcels Post

Passage of the postoffice money bill with a complete parcels post system, was part of the senate's program this afternoon. The measure is considered one of the most important of the session.

Another far-reaching provision is that requiring newspapers and all periodicals to publish semi-annually and to file with the postoffice department a complete list of editors, owners and bondholders and to label all reading matter inserted for a compensation "advertisement."

The Bourne parcels post bill divides the country into units thirty miles square, included in eight postal zones. The first zone extends fifty miles from the center of any given unit of areas, the second up to 150 miles. The charges for parcels in the first zone will be five cents for the first pound, and three cents for each additional pound, up to the maximum weight of 11 pounds and the rate for other zones increases proportionately.

After lengthy debate on the unitizing of the postal employees, an amendment by Senator Jones of Washington, requiring that organizations to which clerks belong should not be affiliated with any outside body was defeated 20 to 31.

Senator Bourne of Oregon, offered an amendment requiring that organizations be not secret and solely for betterment of the members. "There must be discipline in the government's service," Senator Crawford of South Dakota declared, "or there will be destruction of property, blowing up of buildings and loss of life. Distinction must be drawn between these organizations that use dynamite and the peaceable organizations."

Senator La Follette declared that the legislation was proposed at the "behest of the postal authorities who are anxious to increase their power, extend their espionage and exercise more influence over the private affairs of their subordinates." It was aimed particularly at the American Federation of Labor, he asserted.

When Senator Root sought to interrogate La Follette, the latter declared that he refused to be trapped. "I insist on interrupting until that remark is withdrawn," shouted Root. La Follette continued. Root clamored angrily, and finally the senator withdrew the remark.

La Follette said strikes were sometimes justifiable but none would ever occur in the government service.

Senator Cummins of Iowa, declared "that strikes by government employees would be little less than treason."

La Follette said he had thousands of letters from postal employees, showing how they had been persecuted by the department because they refused to abandon organizations disapproved by the officials.

An amendment by Reed (Dem., Mo.) prohibiting membership or affiliation with any organization which countenances strikes, was adopted.

Another amendment that the right of any government employee to furnish congress any information should be interfered with, was also adopted.

Bourne withdrew his amendment. Another Reed amendment permitting personal employees to organize under the limitations imposed by the other sections of the bill was adopted.

25 DELEGATES TO POPULIST MEETING

Only Two Beards Among Men Assembled at the National Convention of Party

PITTSBURG, Aug. 13.—When the populist national convention met here today there was some doubt as to whether Governor Wilson, or Colonel Roosevelt would be endorsed as the party's choice for the presidency. It was also possible the convention would merely adopt a platform and leave the choice of a candidate to the individual party members. It was agreed the populists would not put a ticket in the field.

The convention today comes very near setting a record in the matter of whiskers. The hirsute adornment, long famous with the populists, has apparently lost its popularity, or attention is given more to quality than quantity of whiskers.

The convention today was in great contrast to those of years previous. There were scarcely 25 delegates in one of the assembly rooms at the St. James hotel. In 1892 the populists polled over 1,000,000 votes, but the party has steadily dwindled as have the whiskers. By actual count there were only two beards in the convention today.

CHARGE IMMORAL ACTS TO JUDGE

West Virginia Legislature Asked to Convene for Purpose of Impeaching Jurist

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Aug. 13.—Charges of corruption, gross immorality, and incompetency with specific allegations today against Circuit Judge William R. Bennett of Fayette county, recently renominated in the republican primary and Governor Glasscock has been asked to assemble the state legislature in extraordinary session for the sole purpose of impeaching the jurist.

Judge Bennett is charged with receiving presents and cash and while presiding at the Pocahontas county circuit court is charged with having made an improper proposal to a Pennsylvania woman whose brother was on trial charged with a felony.

ROMANCE SHATTERED

ST. PAUL MUSICIAN WANTS DIVORCE BECAUSE WIFE INSISTS ON ACCOMPANYING HIM IN PUBLIC

ST. PAUL, Aug. 13.—Dan Cupid got a body blow today when Enrico Sansone, 53, musician, intimate of Caruso and owner and principal of the St. Paul College of Music, today filed a suit for divorce against his wife, Mabel Sansone, 30.

The complaint tells how completely a romance has been shattered. Mrs. Sansone was before her marriage, her husband's accompanist. There was another Mrs. Sansone then and several children.

Mr. Sansone left his first wife. She secured a divorce in Chicago. Subsequently Mr. Sansone married his present wife.

Artistic temperament and a violent temper are set forth by Sansone in his complaint as the principle rocks upon which his domestic bark was wrecked.

Mr. Sansone says his wife insisted on playing in public concerts, in company with him, though, he says, she was unfit to perform.

Mrs. Sansone, he also avers, is whimsical and possesses the idea that she is a great musician, and positively insists upon teaching in Mr. Sansone's college of music, whereas, he says, she is unfitted to do this.

nish congress any information should be interfered with, was also adopted.

Bourne withdrew his amendment.

Another Reed amendment permitting personal employees to organize under the limitations imposed by the other sections of the bill was adopted.

REPORT SCATHES CABINET MEMBER

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson Scored for Connection with Everglade Scandal

ALLEGED REPORT SUPPRESSION

Report of Probe Committee Is that He Held Back Bulletin to Benefit Land Sharks

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—Severe strictures upon Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, Assistant Secretary Hayes and a small army of minor officials are made in the report, completed today, of the house committee on expenditures in the agricultural department, summing up their investigation of the "Everglades scandal." The report will be submitted to the house within a few days. Republicans of the committee will probably dissent.

Wilson is scored for alleged suppression of an official report upon feasibility of draining Florida everglades land. That Florida "land sharks" were benefited is charged. The report criticizes Assistant Secretary Hayes for negotiating for an interest in North Carolina lands, whose drainage was contemplated by the government. The department policy of receiving private subscriptions to supplement federal subscriptions for land reclamation projects, is also severely condemned.

The men broke through the roof and lowered themselves to the lawn by ropes. Guard Bost's shots stopped two of them, one of whom was wounded. The other three ran toward the river and disappeared, pursued by prison guards and motorcycle cops.

Nearly every day we read of some poor man who unexpectedly inherited a large fortune, but we never met any of them.

The Best Teacher

A great many people know this store by its advertising. Others know it by reputation, but still more know it by experience. And they know that trading here means always dependable merchandise, commanding the service usually found in the finest jewelry shops only, minus the brain-cudgeling practiced in some stores over delicate and intricate transactions. It's the store with little prices.

MAY DISCONTINUE OILING STREETS

Special Street Improvement Committee Will Consider Three Plans Tomorrow Night

DENGLER FAVORS MACADAM

Says It Is Cheapest and Most Serviceable in the Long Run

If the recommendation of Mayor John Dengler relative to street improvements is adopted the oiling system, with which the city has been experimenting, will be abandoned. Mayor Dengler today issued a call for a meeting of the special street improvement committee for tomorrow night when estimates of the various methods of street finishing will be submitted to the committee. The estimates have been made by City Engineer George Bradish and George Falk of the board of public works.

According to the estimates the cost of sprinkling per block is $20.10 per year; the cost of oiling is $60, and the cost of improving the present macadam streets by the use of asphalt binder and gravel top is $120. With the oiling system, Mr. Dengler declares, the streets will require re-oiling every two years which places the cost of this method at about $30 per block per year. The application of asphalt binder with gravel top will eliminate all further attention for twenty years which makes the cost per block a year for this method about $6, or twenty per cent of the oil system. Mr. Dengler today said that he will recommend the latter method.

The estimates which will be submitted are as follows:

Cost of Oiling

Cost of placing one car tank of No. 6 road oil 10 blocks. Vine street from 6th to 12th, and West Avenue from La Crosse to Vine: Cost of one car of road oil, $275.04 Labor, cleaning street and heating and spreading of oil (men and teams) 216.85 Screened gravel, 50 yards at $1.70 85.00 Coal for heating oil 25.75

Total cost $602.64

Cost of Sprinkling

Cost of sprinkling streets for 1911. 387 blocks. 12 routes at 32½ blocks per route: Cost of labor for sprinkling $3,795.15 Estimated cost of water 4,000.00

Total cost $7,795.15

Estimated cost for water 10.30

Cost of labor per block 9.80

Total cost of water and labor per block per year $ 20.10

Cost of Macadam

Estimated cost per block for permanently improving present macadam streets by the use of asphalt binder with gravel top:

1,000 gal. of asphalt at 7c $ 70.00

Gravel 18.85

Labor 31.15

Total estimated cost per block $120.00

Wisconsin Senator in His Speech Charges Postal Department with Spying Upon Him

READ ANSWERS FROM CLERKS

Badger Legislator Declares Letters Read Were from Postal Employees to Him

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—The senate on Monday after five hours' work on the postoffice appropriation bill, reached an agreement to vote on the measure late on Tuesday.

Discussion of the bill was enlivened on Monday when Senator La Follette, speaking on a house provision granting to employees of postal service the right to organize, deliberately charged officials of the postoffice with rifling his mail in an attempt to interfere with an investigation he was making into the postal service.

The Wisconsin senator declared that his mail had been "subjected to an espionage almost Russian in character" and he showed to the senators a bundle of letters which he said had been tampered with.

"Absurd" and "ridiculous" are adjectives applied to Senator La Follette's charges by officials of the postoffice department. It is declared positively that if the senator's mail had been rifled the crime was committed by somebody not connected with the department.

Grandfield Makes Denial

Dr. Charles P. Grandfield, first assistant and in the temporary absence of Mr. Hitchcock, acting postmaster general, said:

"We never have heard until now that Senator La Follette's mail had tampered with. I think the senator is quite mistaken when he charges that officials of the postoffice department rifled his mail in an attempt to learn the result of an investigation he is making, or for any other purpose."

Chief Inspector Robert C. Sharp was equally certain that Senator La Follette's charges were unfounded, and was emphatic in his denial of them.

Senator La Follette, after making his charges said that men were removed from the railway mail service "for no other reason than that they joined organizations designed to improve labor conditions in the service."

STEWART WILL MAKE AUTO TOUR

The prohibitionists announce a change in the itinerary of Oliver W. Stewart, who is touring the state in an automobile in the interest of the dry cause. He is to start from Sparta on Wednesday morning, Aug. 14, with a street meeting at 11:30. WILL MAKE LAST STAND AT JUAREZ

EL PASO, Texas, Aug. 13.—Following the occupation of Peason and the Casas Grandes district by Mexican federalists under Gen. Rabago, the entire rebel army is today concentrating at Juarez. Orozco today declared all peace negotiations off, and it is believed he is preparing to make a stand.

Destruction of the Mexican Northwestern railroad south of Juarez was started today. Orozco has kept this intact for the movement of his troops, but the advance of the federalists makes the road a menace to the rebel base now.

She Wonders Why Men Shun Her!

She may be beautiful and attractive in many ways—but the delicate, discriminating refinement in her toilet are lacking.

Among all the charms of sweet womanhood, the first is that patrician atmosphere of immaculate personal care—the atmosphere of super-cleanliness, the grace of ease and comfort in every motion—that attractiveness which makes a girl or woman refusing to be led.

SCORES MOOSE SCHEME

W. J. BRYAN SAYS ROOSEVELT TRUST PLAN IS A STEP TOWARD SOCIALISM

NOBLESVILLE, Ind., Aug. 13.—W. J. Bryan denounced Theodore Roosevelt's plan for the control of the trusts, as a step towards socialism, and as being "impracticable," in an interview today.

"Col. Roosevelt believes in allowing the trusts to exist and he proposes to control them by a bureau in Washington," said Bryan. "The plan is a concentration of power, and a step towards socialism. It will be found impracticable. If a municipal franchise corporation can corrupt a city council when the members live among their neighbors how can we hope effectively to regulate a billion dollar monopoly through a bureau at Washington?"

He declared the tariff will be the paramount issue of the coming campaign.

Col. Bryan is touring Indiana following Chautauqua dates.

SOCIETY LEADERS PINCHED

BERLIN, Aug. 13.—A thorough cleaning out of Berlin's many questionable all-night cafes, it is said today, is to follow the police raid on one establishment in which several women of the highest social position were found in masculine attire, mixing in the most disreputable company. The affair has caused a terrific scandal and a number of matrimonial separations are looked for from it.

LAND 300 U. S. MARINES

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica, Aug. 13.—Three hundred more American marines were landed today at Managua, Nicaragua. It is reported here as a result of General Mena's bombardment of the city yesterday. It is believed Commander Terhune has enough men now forcibly to prevent further attacks, which imperil American lives or property in Managua.

A man seldom keeps the promises he makes to himself.

CHILDREN NEED EXTRA CARE IN HOT WEATHER

Summer Heat Dangerous To Little Ones If Bowels Are Neglected

The mother cannot do better for her children than to train them, from infancy, to regularity of the bowels. Chronic constipation in later life can be avoided if the child learns early the need for a daily evacuation of the poisonous stomach waste.

There will, of course, be times when the little one will become constipated and bilious. In hot weather, especially, immediate attention is necessary, as much serious illness results from inactive bowels. Salts, cathartics, perogatives, and similar drastic irritants are harsh and violent and only bring temporary relief while disturbing the whole system. A gentle, pleasant bowel stimulant like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is far preferable. Syrup Pepsin contains no narcotic drugs, being composed of simple laxative herbs combined with pepsin, and acts gently, in a natural manner, on stomach, bowels and liver. By thoroughly cleansing the bowels and removing the foreign matter that irritates and inflames the tissue, it will quickly check the summer diarrhoea that is so weakening in its effect.

Druggists sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, the larger size being intended for family use. A free trial bottle, postpaid, can be obtained, by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 406 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

LAZY BOY ASKS JOB

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Aug. 13.—"Situation Wanted—A lazy, dull, non-ambitious young man with a high school education wants work of some kind. Have had two years' experience in drug store and also have taught a rural school. Address A. Norlin, 1910 Polk Street, N. E."

This unusual want ad. appeared in a local newspaper today. "Every want ad. I've ever read," said Norlin today, "tells of the wonderful qualifications of the applicant. Now I don't believe I have any notable ability, but I want a job and I'll work, too."

That bore who is always tired, but keeps working at it, is possibly the most painful.

The trouble with the fellow who knows it all is that he has so much to learn.
